NI-BOTS SOFTWARE SOLUTIONS

Bringing AI into Everyday Life.

Investor presentation

THE PROBLEM

Two everyday problems worth solving

At home

Finding the right professional for a home service should feel simple and transparent. Households need reliable help; service professionals need visible, steady work.

At work

Business decisions rarely sit inside one dashboard. Teams must connect marketing, sales and web signals, understand the context, and decide what to do next.

OUR APPROACH

Two products. One mission.

● Live

WOGIG

Your trusted service platform.

Connects households with service professionals for home maintenance and everyday service needs: discovery, requests, coordination and delivery in one place.

○ In development

Nibots AI

Agentic marketing & business intelligence.

Brings marketing and business intelligence together, helping teams understand performance, spot opportunities and move from insight to action.

WOGIG · LIVE PRODUCT

Home services, made simpler

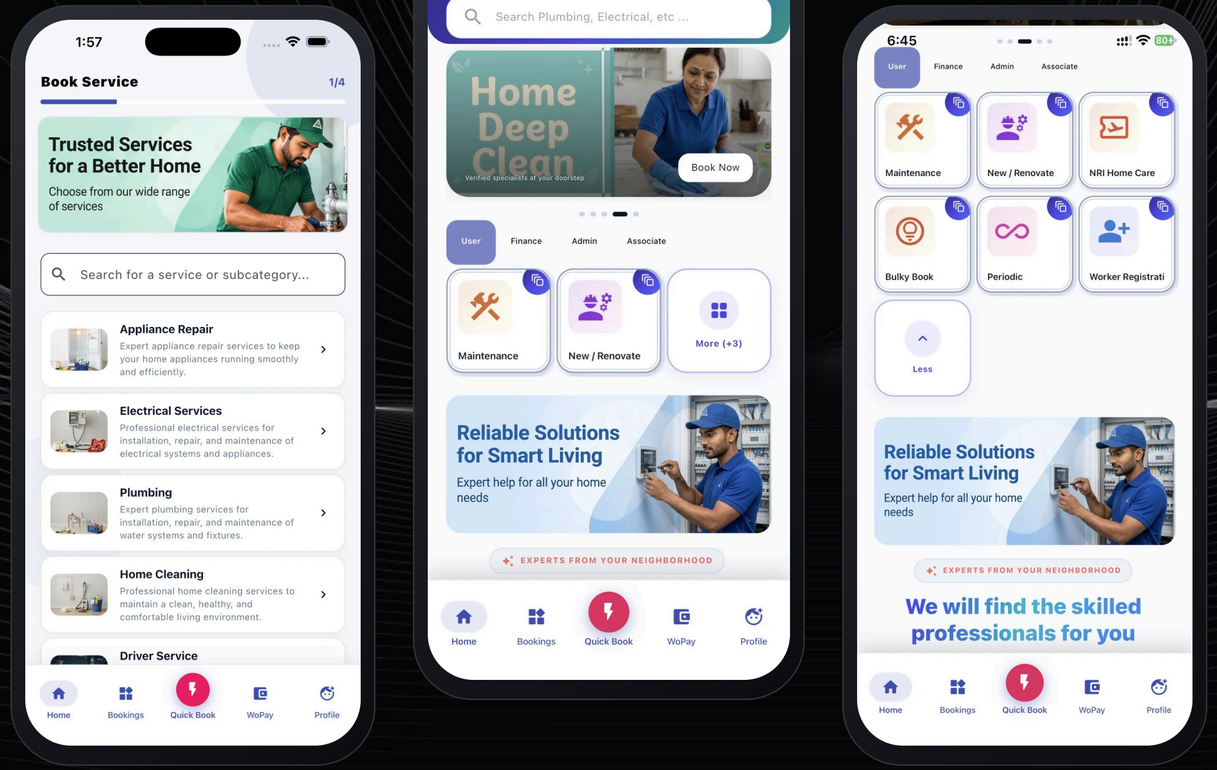

One digital ecosystem for households and service professionals.

For customers

Find relevant help and organise the work in one place.

For service professionals

A digital channel to present services and win work.

HOW WOGIG WORKS

A clearer way to organise a service request

01

Share the requirement

Users describe the home service or maintenance job and the details needed to understand it.

02

Connect with professionals

Relevant service professionals review the opportunity and respond through the platform.

03

Coordinate the work

Request, assignment, inspection and completion stages keep the job visible.

04

Complete with visibility

Transparent processes for users and professionals at every stage, with digital payments.
